

PROGRAM

Black History Found and Forged: Chronicling the East Marshall Street Well Project

2:00-4:00 PM, Feb. 1, 2025

Black History Museum and Cultural Center of Virginia
Community Room

2:00 - 2:15 PM

WELCOMING REMARKS

Chris Cynn, Director of the Health Humanities Lab; Associate Director of the Humanities Research Center; and Associate Professor, Gender, Sexuality and Women's Studies, VCU

Michael Dickinson, Co-Director, East Marshall Street Well Oral History and Memorialization Project at the Health Humanities Lab, and Associate Professor, History, VCU

Kevin Harris, Senior Associate Dean for Diversity, Equity and Inclusion at VCU School of Medicine, Dean's Office

2:15 - 2:40 PM

EAST MARSHALL STREET WELL PROJECT, FAMILY REPRESENTATIVE COUNCIL

Carmen Foster, Member of the East Marshall Street Well Project's Family Representative Council (FRC); Co-chair of the Memorialization and Interment Committee

Stephanie Smith, Member of the East Marshall Street Well Project's Family Representative Council (FRC)

2:40 - 2:55 PM

HEALTH HUMANITIES LAB ORAL HISTORY PROJECT INTERVIEWER

Ana Edwards, Assistant Professor, African American Studies, VCU; Founding Chair of the Defenders' Sacred Ground Historical Reclamation Project

2:55 - 3:15 PM

HEALTH HUMANITIES LAB EAST MARSHALL STREET WELL ORAL HISTORY AND MEMORIALIZATION PROJECT STUDENT FELLOWS

I-Kamilah Hiwott, Health Humanities Lab Student Fellow

Rome Kamarouthu, Health Humanities Lab Student Fellow

Ashley Burks, Health Humanities Lab Student Fellow

Sunday Wright, Health Humanities Lab Student Fellow

3:15 - 3:30 PM

CLOSING REMARKS

Michael Dickinson

3:30 - 4:00 PM

COMMUNITY DISCUSSION / Q&A